Weekend in Havana: An American Photographer in the Forbidden City Robert A. McCabe

HardCover Pub Date: 2007 Pages: 137 in Publisher: Abbeville Press Inc. .. U.S. An insightful exploration of the people of Havana and their daily activities, as seen through the lens of the American photographer Robert A. McCabe Both Cuba and the United States have strict rules governing photographic activity in Cuba. The US carefully delineates what kinds of photographic undertakings are forbidden, while Cuba has, in the past, imprisoned photographers for giving a distorted image of Cuban reality. Nevertheless, photographer Robert A. McCabe managed to satisfy the many regulations, and spent four eventful days in Havana, taking pictures of a people rarely seen by the rest of the world. Weekend in Havana celebrates Havana's citizens in a compilation of moving and thought-provoking photographs, 97 in total and all in full color. From images of buildings that combine classical in...
